

Perry Johnson Registrars is among the fastest-growing registrars in the world and a leader in North America. The number of registrations is not nearly as important, however, as PJR's sensitivity to the needs of any size business is unbeatable. With some of the best auditors in the business and a customer-first focus, find out how PJR goes above and beyond for every client!

PJR's ADVANTAGES

Priority Scheduling:

At PJR, we do not want your organization to get lost in the registration shuffle. The registration process is a substantial undertaking for most companies. PJR is committed to being as flexible with your scheduling as possible, allowing the process to flow easier. The earlier you sign up with us, the higher priority you have with us. This ensures you get the audit dates you want. This also helps to ensure that the auditors who are technically competent in your scope will be local to you, if available.

Pending Letter of Registration:

The notice of Pending Registration is provided to an organization as soon as the deposit is submitted. The personalized letter allows organizations to begin to reap the benefits of certification today, even though certification may not occur for several more months. The Notice of Pending Registration is an impressive way to let customers know that you are serious about quality and have already begun the registration process. Committing to a quality program helps to eliminate the time-consuming and tedious chore of responding to surveys from your customers regarding your quality system. You can use this letter on your website and send hard copies to your clients as a part of your marketing packages.

Other Advantages:

- No mandatory preliminary site visit
- No penalty for changing schedules (with reasonable notice)
- No hidden costs
- No application fee
- No overtime charges
- One complimentary certification plaque per client
- Client press releases written at no additional charge
- Real time tracking of audit process via web portal
- Dedicated single point of contact for client account management
- No markup on auditor's travel expenses
- Three registration certificates
- Risk-based audits that drive system improvement
- Free webinars on a variety of topics
- Free podcast episodes
- Free online training courses
